Proportional representation (PR) characterizes electoral systems by which divisions into an electorate are reflected proportionately into the elected body. If  $n\%$  of the electorate support a particular political party, then roughly  $n\%$  of seats will be won by that party. The essence of such systems is that all votes contribute to the result: not just a plurality, or a bare majority, of them.

Media and Elections. The media are essential to democracy, and a democratic election is impossible without media. A free and fair election is not only about the freedom to vote and the knowledge of how to cast a vote, but also about a participatory process where voters engage in public debate and have adequate information about parties, policies, candidates and the election process itself in ...
